

STATE of WISCONSIN

OFFICE of the GOVERNOR

Proclamation

WHEREAS; Education & Sharing Day has been recognized nationwide since 1978, in tribute to the life's work of the Rebbe, Rabbi Menachem M. Schneerson; and

WHEREAS; as a global spiritual leader of the Jewish community and a tireless advocate for youth around the world, the Rebbe emphasized the importance of ensuring every child had access to a high-quality education; and

WHEREAS; the work of Wisconsin educators, administrators, policy-makers, parents, and guardians is crucial to improving educational opportunity for our state's students, and to expanding access to a high-quality, public education for every Wisconsinite; and

WHEREAS; a high-quality, accessible public education is vital to the success of our state and our country, as well as safeguarding the freedom and autonomy of our state's residents and communities; and

WHEREAS; this Education & Sharing Day, the State of Wisconsin honors the Rebbe's legacy, encourages acts of goodness and kindness in his memory, and reaffirms our state's commitment to establishing an educational infrastructure that enables all Wisconsin students to reach their full potential, regardless of their age, background, or identity;

NOW THEREFORE, I, Tony Evers, Governor of the State of Wisconsin, do hereby proclaim April 5, 2020, as
